

The EconomistData Journalist*Mar 2021 - Apr 2021

- Planned and researched potential stories to pitch to The Economist Data Team's Daily chart editor around internet freedom and heavyweight boxing.
- Learned how to scrape tweets from a Twitter account and then visualise it into a line chart with the ggplot2 data visualisation package in R.
- Used Freedom House and Boxrec data sources to clean and analyse data in Excel to use for creating a two-panel chart to The Economist's house style.

Computer Business ReviewReporter*May 2018 - Aug 2018

- Written news and feature stories within the B2B IT sector, including an exclusive story on the £500 million Brexit data centre contract tender.
- Reported across the annual results for each yearly quarter from companies within the enterprise IT sector, which includes AMD, Intel and Tableau.
- Attended conferences such as the 2018 Hewlett Packard Enterprise Discover event in Las Vegas, reporting on the latest new product updates from HPE.

DES|blitz.comJunior Writer*Jan 2018 - Apr 2018

- Pitched and identified story ideas within the sports, data and technology patches that fitted in with the publication's South Asian readership.
- Created original data visualisations using Tableau and Datawrapper, which were used in the 2018 WWE Royal Rumble: By the Numbers story.
- Delivered trending news and feature articles such as the Huawei P20 and Samsung Galaxy S9 within days of each article published on the website.

EDUCATION

Birmingham City University2020 - 2021, Master of Arts Data Journalism*Merit

- Designed a choose-your own adventure newsgame in Twine to put the player in the shoes of a person who is unemployed and living in digital exclusion.
- Collaborated with data and multimedia journalists who planned and produced an overnight livestream of the 2020 United States presidential election.
- Administered a major project, covering stories around motor racing championships such as the British Touring Car Championship and F1.

2014 - 2017, BA (Hons) Media and Communication (Journalism)2:1*ADDITIONAL INTERESTS

- Enjoy following the history of sports such as motor racing and snooker.
- Swimmer who competes in open water swimming events and challenges.
- Active member of the data journalism community who regularly attends events to develop both storytelling and visualisation skills.